

Systems tracts and shoreline shifts

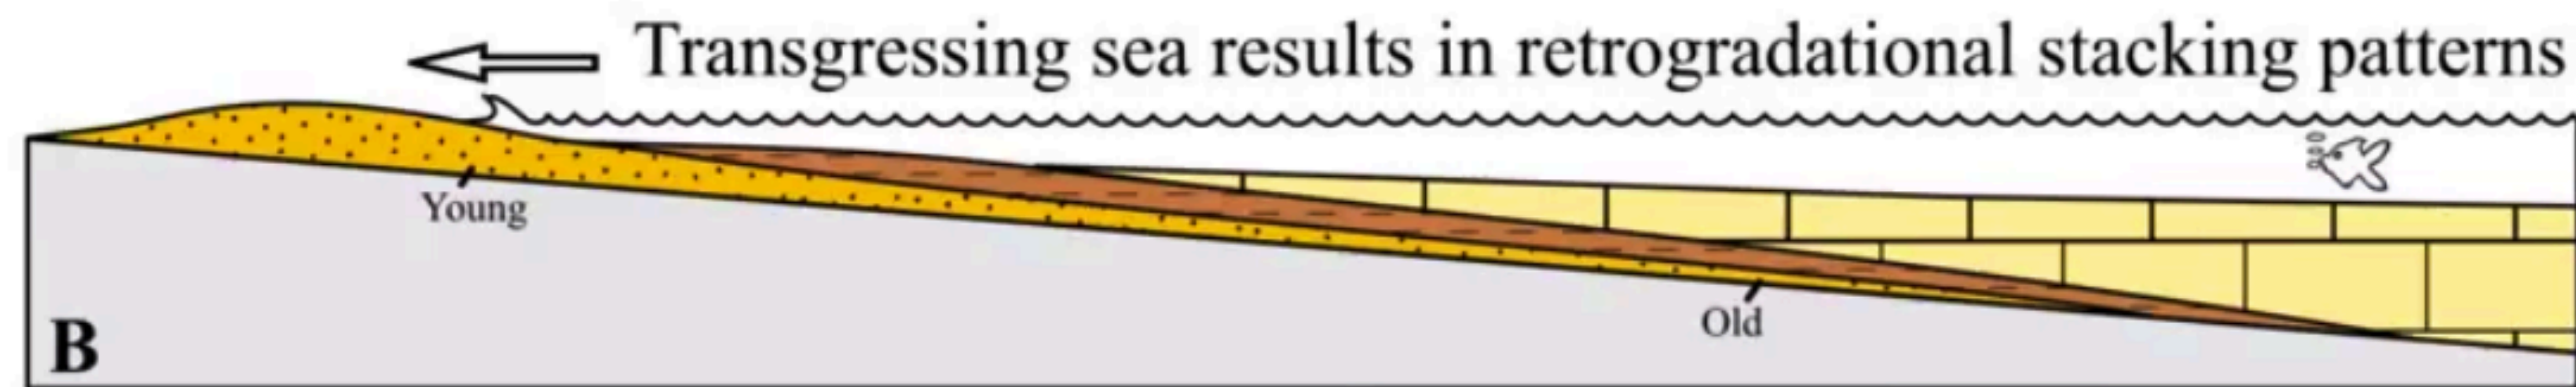

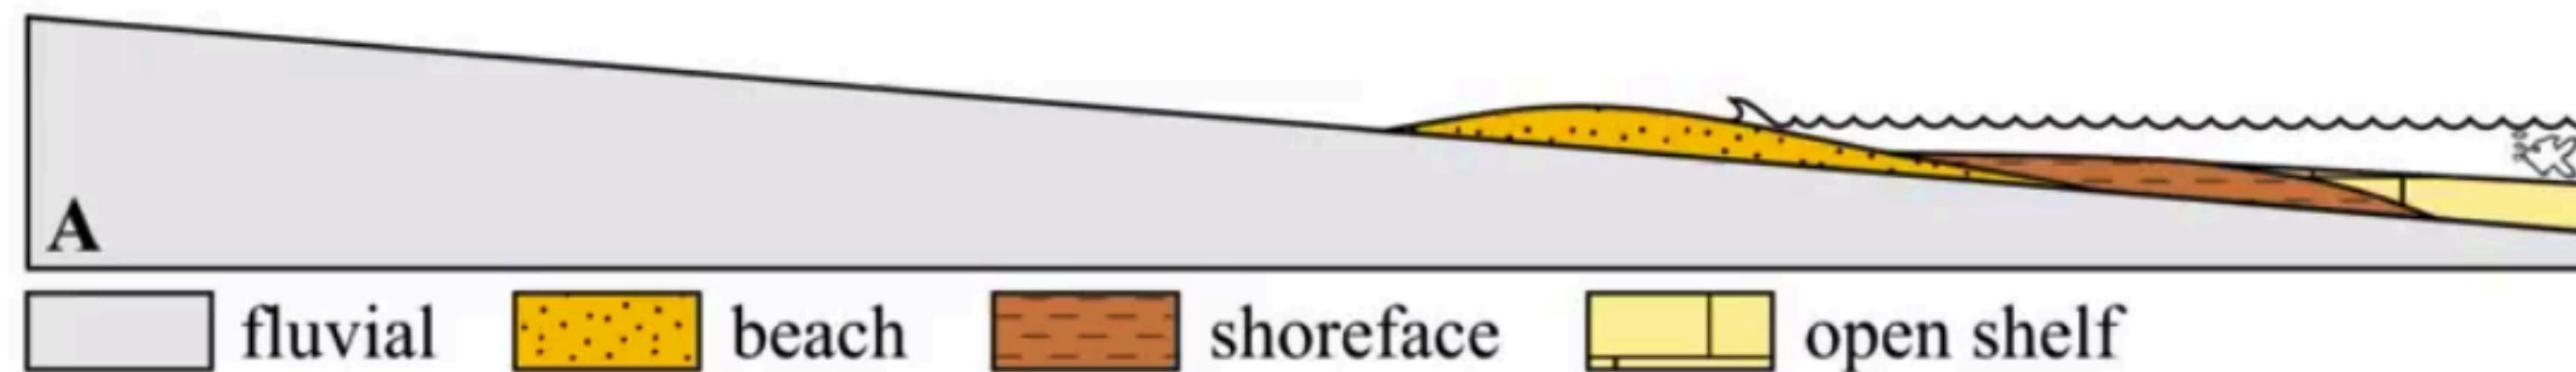

Normal regression occurs during base level rise (rate < sedimentation)

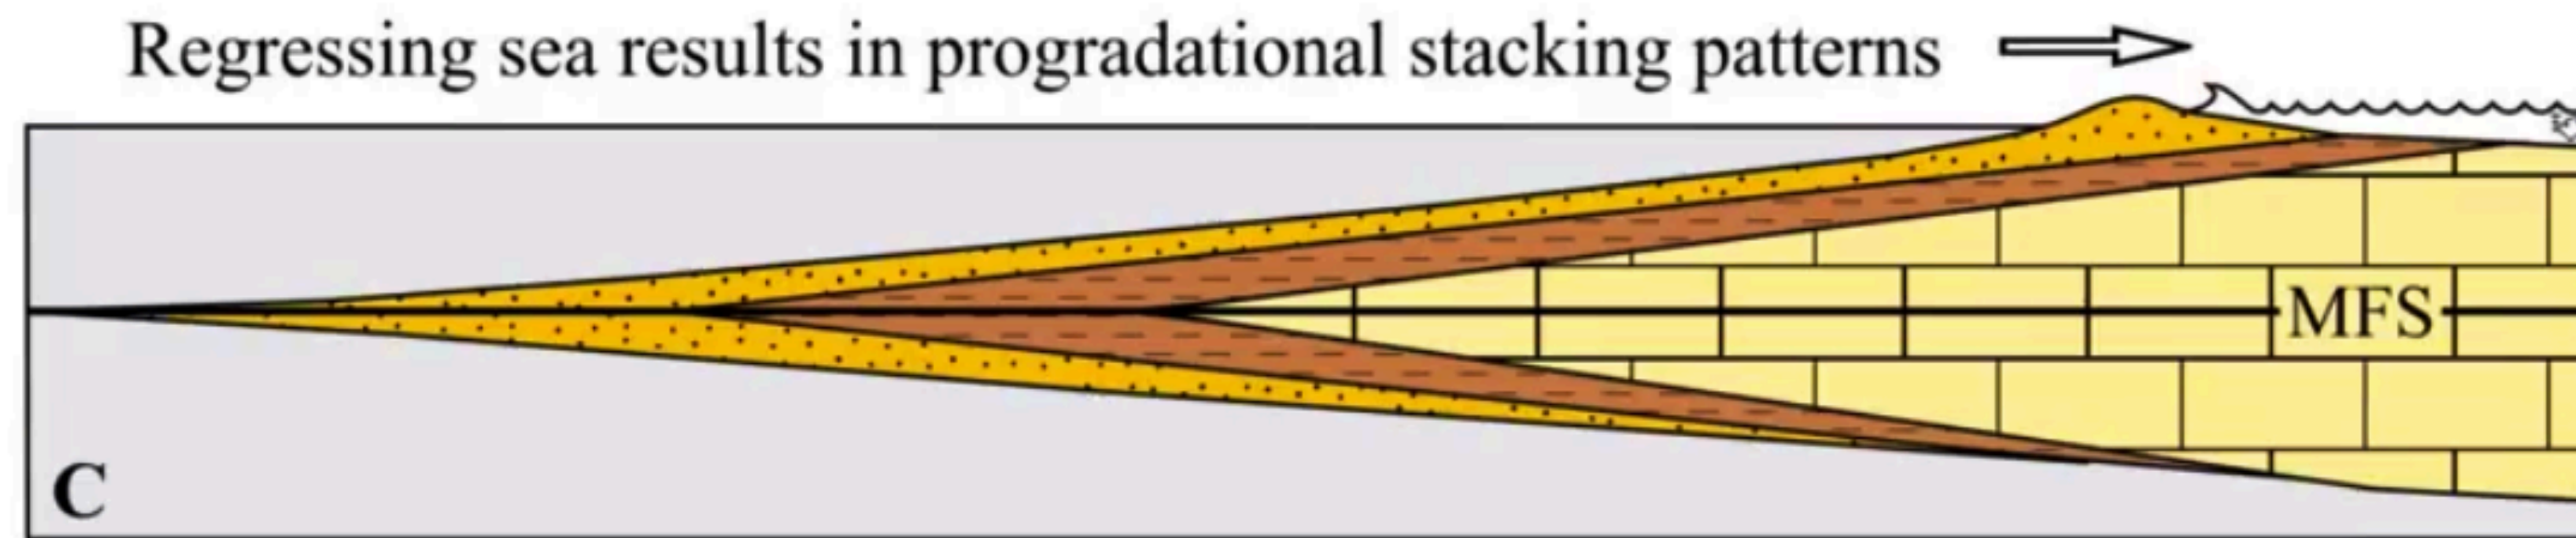

Forced regression occurs during base level fall

Systems tracts and shoreline shifts

Shifts in shoreline position create distinct vertical stacking patterns of facies (retrogradation vs. progradation)

Transgression: landward shoreline & facies shift

Regression: seaward shoreline & facies shift